FREE SAMPLE · PLAIN TALK AI

Plain Talk for Tradies

5 AI templates and Week 1 of the social media plan, free.

5 AI templates

7 days of posts

Free ChatGPT, Claude & Gemini

Quotes · Follow-ups · Invoices · Reviews · Social media · Admin

How to use these templates

1. Copy the whole box.
2. Replace everything in [square brackets] with your details. If you don't know something, delete that line.
3. Paste it into ChatGPT, Claude or Gemini and send.
4. Read the result. If it's not quite right, tell it what to fix: "Shorter", "Less formal", "Mention we're free Thursday".

Start with Template 1. Save it in your AI tool once (ChatGPT: Settings → Personalisation → Custom instructions. Claude: create a Project and paste it into the instructions) and every message after that will sound like your business.

Always check before you send. AI can get prices, dates and technical details wrong. Leave customers' full addresses and bank details out, and add them yourself.

1 Business Profile

COPY & PASTE

```
You are my office assistant for my trade business in Australia. Use this information every time you write something for me.

BUSINESS
- Business name: [business name]
- Trade: [e.g. electrician / plumber / carpenter / painter / tiler / landscaper]
- Licence number (include on quotes and invoices): [licence number]
- ABN: [ABN]
- Registered for GST: [yes / no]
- Service area: [suburbs or region, e.g. Brisbane northside and Moreton Bay]
- Main services: [list your main jobs, e.g. switchboard upgrades, lighting, EV chargers]
- Jobs I don't do: [e.g. commercial fit-outs, anything over 3 storeys]
- Typical call-out fee or minimum charge: [amount, or "none"]
- Hours: [e.g. Mon-Fri 7am-4pm, emergency call-outs after hours]
- Phone: [phone]   Email: [email]   Website: [website, if any]

HOW I WRITE
- Australian English and spelling (colour, organise, metres, GST).
- Friendly, straight-talking and professional. Like a reliable local tradie, not a corporate company.
- Short sentences. No jargon unless the customer is another tradie or builder.
- Never use American terms like "contractor's estimate", "faucet", "drywall" or "zip code".
- Don't overpromise, don't make up prices, dates or technical facts. If you need information I haven't given you, ask me or leave a clear [GAP] for me to fill in.
- Sign off as: [your name], [business name]

2 Reply to a new enquiry

Use it when: a message comes in by email, text, Facebook or your website form.

COPY & PASTE

Write a reply to this new customer enquiry. Keep it under 100 words.
Their message: [paste their message]
What I want to do next: [e.g. book a site visit / ask for photos / give a rough price range / say I'm booked until a date]
My availability: [e.g. can look at it Thursday or Friday morning]
Anything else to mention: [e.g. call-out fee is $X, or "nothing"]
End with one clear next step for them.
```

7 Quote follow-up messages

Use it when: you've sent a quote and heard nothing. Most quotes that are won are won on the follow-up.

COPY & PASTE

Write three follow-up messages for a quote I sent that hasn't been answered.
Customer: [first name]  Job: [job]  Quote sent: [date]
Message 1: 2 days after. A friendly text, under 40 words, checking they got it and asking if they have questions.
Message 2: 7 days after. A short email offering to talk through options or adjust the scope to suit their budget.
Message 3: 14 days after. A polite last check-in, letting them know when the quote expires and that my schedule is filling up [only if true].
Never be pushy or guilt-trip them.
```

18 Overdue reminder sequence

COPY & PASTE

```
Write a series of three payment reminders for an overdue invoice.
Customer: [name]  Invoice: [number]  Amount: [$]  Original due date: [date]
Reminder 1: 3 days overdue. Friendly, assume they forgot. Text message, under 40 words.
Reminder 2: 14 days overdue. Polite but direct email, restating the amount and due date, and asking them to pay or contact me by [date].
Reminder 3: 30 days overdue. Firm and professional. Say that if it isn't paid or a payment plan agreed by [date], I'll take the next step: [e.g. refer it to a debt collector / lodge a claim].
No threats I wouldn't actually follow through on, no insults, nothing emotional.
```

20 Ask for a review

Use it when: the job's done and the customer is happy. Ask on the same day, while they're still pleased.

COPY & PASTE

Write a short text message asking a happy customer for a Google review.
Customer: [first name]   Job: [job]
Something specific about the job I can mention: [e.g. got the hot water back on the same day]
My review link: [paste your Google review link]
Under 45 words. Warm, not pushy. Make it clear a sentence or two is plenty.
```

WEEK 1

Meet the business

Goal: Let locals know who you are and that you're open for work.

Mon ★

Introduce yourself

Who you are, your trade, how long you've been at it, and the area you cover.

Capture: A friendly photo of you with the ute or in uniform.

Caption starter: "G'day [suburb]! I'm [name] from [business]. I've been a [trade] for [X] years and I look after homes across [area]..."

Tue

Your services

A simple list of the jobs you do most, so people know to call you.

Capture: Photos from 3–4 different jobs, posted as a carousel.

Caption starter: "Not sure if we do it? Here's what we get called out for most..."

Wed ★

Why you do what you do

The story of how you got into the trade, or what you love about it.

Capture: An old apprentice-days photo, or you on the tools today.

Caption starter: "[X] years ago I started my apprenticeship with [who/where]. Here's what I've learned since..."

Thu

Your service area

Map out the suburbs you cover, so locals know you're nearby.

Capture: A screenshot of a map with your area circled, or a photo in a recognisable local spot.

Caption starter: "Live in [suburb list]? You're in our patch. We're usually on site within [X] days..."

Fri ★

Your best recent job

Show off one job you're proud of, with a before and after.

Capture: Before-and-after photos from the same angle.

Caption starter: "This one's a favourite. [Customer first name] in [suburb] had [problem]. Here's how it turned out..."

Sat

Your tools of the trade

Show your favourite tool or the ute setup. People love a peek behind the scenes.

Capture: Photo of your favourite tool or a tidy ute or van fit-out.

Caption starter: "Every tradie has one tool they couldn't live without. Mine's the [tool]. Here's why..."

Sun

Thank you, first customers

Thank the customers who've supported you and invite reviews.

Capture: A photo of a happy customer (with permission) or a screenshot of a great review.

Caption starter: "Massive thanks to everyone who's trusted us with their homes. If we've worked for you, a quick Google review means the world..."

This week: If you only do one thing this week: post the Monday introduction and pin it to the top of your Facebook page.
